

What happens if we add "e" before "health"?

It is a possibility to access medical data, prescriptions and images via online system in a secure and trusted way.

100% of clinics in Estonia are connected with the system and patients have full online access to prescriptions and medical records.

E-health system helps the doctor to get a much more comprehensive picture of the patient's health on the basis of a variety of health records.